

Company Stats:

- Company Name: Eastern Edge Robotics, Memorial University
- Home Province: Newfoundland and Labrador, Canada
- Distance Traveled: 4497km to Orlando, Florida
- Competition Participation: 10th year being involved in the MATE ROV competition.
- Education Level: Varying post-secondary students, ranging from freshman to senior.

Employees (left to right)

Back Row: Ian Veinott (Engineering Consultant), Dan Ryan (Offshore Consultant), Jon Watson (CFO), Justin Higdon (CEO), Petros Mathioudakis (COO)

Middle Row: Kyle Doody (Fabrication), Adam Wetmore (Pilot), Brian Aylward (Research and Development), Chris Finn (Tool Fabrication)

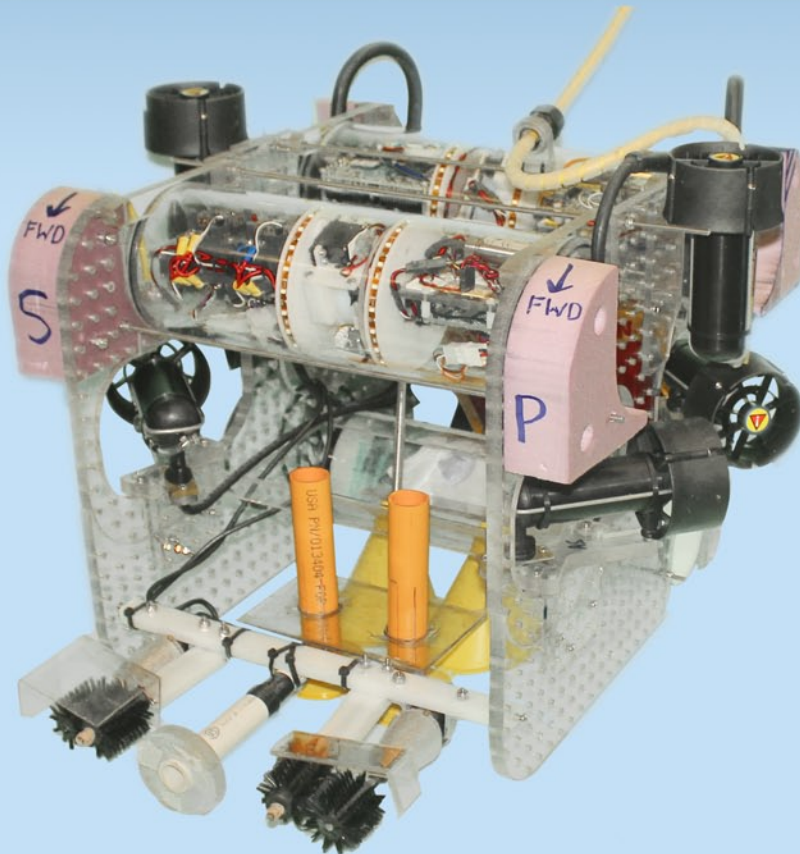

Front Row: Mark Flynn (Vehicle Design), Steve Jeffers (Public Relations), Kourtney Duff (Safety Officer), Bethany Randell (Electrical Engineer), Jake Parsons (Technology Consultant)

Not Pictured: Brian Peach (Marketing), Kaitlin Quinlan (Engineering Consultant)

Company Picture, taken at Cape Spear, Newfoundland, the most eastern point in North America.

ROV ROCK LOBSTER

ROV Stats:

- ROV Name: ROCK LOBSTER
- Total Cost: $35,000.00 CAD
- Primary Material: Lexan
- Dimensions: 42cm(L) X 52cm(H) X 36cm(W)
- Weight: 25kg
- Safety Features:
 - Pre-Dive safety checklist, incorporated into the control software
 - A circuit breaker installed in the topside control unit
 - A software kill-switch which disables all moving parts at the press of a button
- Special Features: Rock Lobster's fore and aft are software-interchangeable