

4. Company and school, club, or organization name. Black Stingrays, Western Sierra Charter Schools.

5. Home state and/or country. United States, California.

6. Distance traveled to the Competition. We unfortunately were not able to attend the regional competition due to COVID-19. Though, it would be about 140 miles from Fresno, to the Watsonville High School where the regional competition would have been held.

7. History of MATE competition participation (new or returning.) We are new to the ROV program.

8. Company photo and caption with team members' names and roles.

Laila Rodriguez:

- CEO of the team Black Stingrays
- Project Manager of the team Black Stingrays

Logan Haines:

- Co-CEO of the team Black Stingrays
- Co-Pilot of the team Black Stingrays

Nathaniel Shkaruba:

- Pilot of the team Black Stingrays

Cooper Haines:

- Responsible for the system(s) engineering, design integration, testing, and operations

9. Range of grade/college levels represented by team members. Laila Rodriguez, (sixth grade), Nathaniel Shkaruba, (sixth grade), Cooper Haines, (sixth grade), and Logan Haines, (seventh grade).